CONGRESSMAN

Michael C. Burgess, M.D. Invites you to Attend a Summit on Emergency Preparedness

"We all know that the weather in North Texas can change in an instant, and we can never be too prepared for the natural disasters that hit our region. Whether we face tornadoes, hail or flash flooding, we must be ready. I am hosting an Emergency Preparedness Summit to help you and your family prepare for and respond to the many types of natural disasters North Texas experiences. The summit will feature local experts and organizations to provide you with pertinent disaster response information. I hope you can join me."

Making Sure North Texans Are Prepared

It is important that you are aware of the steps you should take before, during, and after any natural disaster. I hope you will join me for an Emergency Preparedness Summit so that I can help you and your family be prepared for the challenges severe weather could bring.

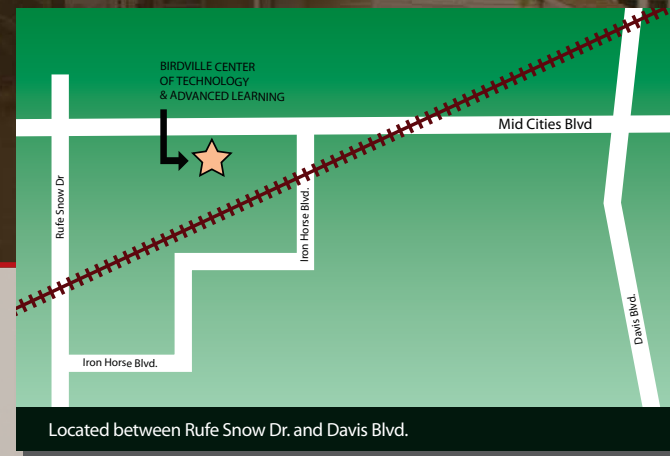

Emergency Preparedness Summit Saturday, April 10, 2010 – 8:30am – 11:30am

Birdville Center of Technology and Advanced Learning
7020 Mid Cities Blvd., North Richland Hills, TX 76180

Larry Mowry, Chief Meteorologist for CBS 11

The summit will feature two emergency preparedness panels comprised of local, state and federal experts, and also a fair with booths for weather and disaster-specific organizations that have pertinent consumer information.
